

ADAM KOUKOUidakis plied his trade at Chelsea, Central Saint Martins and the University of the Arts, Berlin before landing firmly on his feet with an invite to exhibit alongside Banksy, Antony Micallef and Invader as part of 'Stench' at the Lazarides Gallery late last year. Adam's style is hard to pin down as his work embraces: hands-on collage, hand painted prints, highly technical CMYK ink paintings and the more familiar stencil based work on canvas. Following his State Of Play collaboration, Adam will be exhibiting new work in Los Angeles this December - with a solo show planned for 2008 in London.

ADAM KOUKOUidakis AUCTION DETAILS

In order to raise as much money as possible for Anti Slavery International and inject a little bit of intrigue along the way - Adam Koukoudakis and State of Play have decided to run a silent auction for the following three original pieces: Tank Girls (2007) Paper collage with gold-sprayed frame, Carnival (2007) Paper collage with gold-sprayed frame and Mother of Africa (2007) Paper collage on board with gold-sprayed frame.

To place your bid, email your bid directly to adzauction@stateofplayzine.com. Simply state which piece(s) you are bidding on and your maximum bid, along with your name, email address and a contact telephone number.

All bidders who leave a valid email address will receive an email directly from the artist, Adam Koukoudakis thanking them for their bid and explaining the inspiration behind the original pieces up for auction.

The successful bidder will be contacted at the end of January 2008 to arrange for payment and delivery of the work - unless they specify they would like the art in time for Christmas. Should the highest bidder not respond to attempts to contact them within 28 days, the second highest bidder will be offered the work - and so on and so forth until the highest confirmed buyer can be validated.

Please note. Delivery charges will be added to the winning bid, unless you're able to pick it up from London.
